

When to Update LinkedIn With a New Job

Factors to Consider

1

JOB OFFER STAGE

Wait for Signed Offer:

Ensure you have a signed offer letter to avoid complications.

NOTICE PERIOD

Respect Company

Policies: Inform your current employer first for a smooth transition.

2

FIRST IMPRESSIONS AT NEW JOB

Wait a Few Weeks:

Understand your new role and responsibilities better before updating.

3

NETWORKING BENEFITS

Early Update

Advantage: Connect with new colleagues and industry contacts early.

4

PROFESSIONAL COURTESY

Inform Current

Employer: Especially important for public-facing roles to maintain respect.

5

PROBATION PERIOD

Consider Waiting:

Complete your probation period (3-6 months) to ensure the job is a good fit

6

Consider waiting until you have a signed offer, informing your current employer, and giving yourself a few weeks in your new role.

CONCLUSION: